MEMPHIS APPEAL.

GOSSIP FROM WASHINGTON.

We have endeavored for several days to reproduce in our columns the following special gossip to the Louisville Journal, (which is vastly improved), but some pressing matter, hardly of as much interest intervened. Although three or four days old, being of the 16th and 17th, the several paragraphs refer to certain things that have not been touched or reached in any other shape. True, what is said of the expected veto of the unconstitutional District-of-Columbia election bill has not yet been verified, and Chase is said to have interfered to save McCulloch, but not for long. We give them for what they are worth, and a continuance of the same sort a few days later:

The bill legislating the lately defeated nigger-worshippers of Washington City into office, passed the House to-day. The President will veto it of course; but there will be Radical force enough in Congress to pass it over his head. There is much excitement in the minds of the natives at this outrageous act of usurpation.

There is a rumor out that the President will allow the "omnibus bill," and the Radicals call their act for the benefit of the carpet-baggers in the provinces to become a law by limitation; but well informed persons say he will veto it elaborately.

The chances now favor an early adjournment of Congress. The members are very anxious to look after their elections.

The post of Attorney General will, most probably, be declined by Mr. Evarts, who would accept that of Secretary of State, if Seward concludes to withdraw.

The Chase movement has fizzled out. It never had any solid strength; by many it was considered a mere ruse, still his name may be formally presented.

The action of the Georgia military authorities in the recent arrests meets with the decided disapproval of all parties here who have examined the facts.

The Texas carpet-baggers are here in force, with a memorial praying Congress, or rather the Reconstruction Committee, to take the military power out of the hands of the United States military officers and place it in the hands of the carpet-baggers, who want to rule the State by militia, after the fashion of the Radicals of Tennessee.

The prosecution is still not ready to try young Surratt. The fact is, they are getting sick of the prosecution. There is talk of a new indictment and trial.

Spencer M. Clark, famous, and, by many considered rather infamous, in connection with the Treasury Printing Bureau, has at length been forced by outside pressure to resign a very fat berth under McCulloch.

Chief Justice Chase has been sent for to help keep Secretary McCulloch in the Treasury. It is supposed the Chief Justice has a good deal of influence over the President, and that he will be of signal service in resisting the outside pressure against McCulloch's retention. The movement is very formidable and savage, but its success is doubtful.

Garrett Davis presented to-day a petition from W. S. Chipley, of Lexington, Ky., detailing a gross series of outrages on his son by the military authorities of Georgia, and the base means used to suborn witnesses. It was referred to the Judiciary Committee. The whole matter will be probed to the bottom. The treatment of the prisoners is deemed atrocious by all parties. Gen. Meade is said to have instigated these outrages. His removal from command is expected. The President told Dr. Chipley that these acts were horrible.

JUNE 18.—The twenty per cent. increase of compensation to the department clerks may be considered as finally dead. The House to-day, led by Bingham, tabled it. The vote was 68 to 64. By this the Radicals expect to make an economy argument. They expect it to cover up any number of extravagant jobs and fraudulent contracts.

One thing the House did to-day which deserves to be made note of. It put Pomeroy's pet land swindle to death. This scheme embraced several nice features. Among others it covered about one-sixth of the best lands in Kansas, purchased by the Government of the Osage Indians, and given to the Leavenworth and Galveston Railroad Company, in which Pomeroy is interested. There was a big fight in the House. Cary, of Ohio, and others made vehement and telling speeches. The Radical jobbers turned out in force, but it was finally decided against the "ring."

The Military Committee has agreed to report a bill giving to men and officers of the army absent by sickness, wounds, or captivity the same pay as if present for muster. [Always something for buncombe!]

The Senate is dull to-day. Chase has arrived. He denies that he is for McCulloch. Says he is neutral. The object of his coming is to urge Fred. Seward for Rollins' place. This would be a point for Chase as it would throw him the support of the whisky ring. He and his friends say they are hopeful.

Currency Bureau Clarke says he hasn't resigned. He is a miserable wretch who has been shielded throughout by McCulloch. His talk of resignation is no doubt suggested by the danger of the removal of his master.

Leading Republicans inform Dr. Chipley that they will not sustain the late outrages in Georgia. It looks rather ugly for Meade just now. The President is dissatisfied, and there are hints of a commission.

JUNE 19.—Grant and Butler, "by the intercession of friends," have buried the hatchet. They dined together for the first time to-day, and report says were very merry over their wine. Colfax was the go-between. The idea is that Butler is to have a foreign mission if Grant is elected, and, in the event of the refusal of the Court to which he may be assigned to receive him, which is likely, he is to be made Collector of New York. All this counting of chickens is absurd, but is believed to be entirely reliable.

The prospect of any tax bill this session is blue. The Radicals are afraid to commit themselves. Schenck is, or pretends to be, disgusted, but the managers say "no tax bill after the Presidential election."

JUNE 21.—The Radicals are very angry with Simon Cameron for taking a batch of Senators off on a spree to Ashland, Pennsylvania. The oversight prevented the desired two-thirds vote over the President's veto. The thing creates a good deal of merriment in Democratic circles. Cameron himself cares little about it. He has a big job on hand, and his railroad celebration was designed to grind his own ax, party or no party.

The friends of McCulloch are besieging the White House. The President tells them that the resignation of McCulloch would relieve him of embarrassment. Intimate friends of Mr. Johnson to-day say that McCulloch will certainly go out.

The expected amnesty proclamation will amount to little or nothing. It will not reach more than one hundred of the outstanding cases.

The veto of the bill admitting Georgia, North Carolina, etc., is looked for sometime about the middle of next week.

—The following is a strong illustration of the incompatibility of the nomination of Chase by the Democratic National Convention: "When a college of Catholic Bishops shall vote a Cardinal's hat to an 'itinerant Methodist minister,' then will the Democratic Convention, which meets in New York on the 4th of July, nominate Chief Justice Chase as their candidate for the Presidency."

—Mr. E. S. Williams was robbed of $1100 last week and then murdered, in Green county, Ga.

FATAL AFFRAY.

On Tuesday, the 16th, at Russellville, Ky., a bloody affair took place, in which Maj. N. C. Lawrence, late of the Federal [illegible] deavored to make a hasty retreat but was killed before he had gone any distance, having been shot three times in the body with the same revolver with which he intended to kill McCarty. The latter was soon after arrested by the City Marshal, but being in a very critical condition was taken to a house a short distance away from the fatal scene.

Capt. McCiesry, a Lieutenant and thirty men of the United States regulars, went to Russellville on the first train and stationed guards around the house where McCarty had been carried to prevent (?) his escape. At this unlooked for proceedure the citizens were very justly incensed, as the civil officers were both willing and able to see that the laws were properly enforced. The free people of Kentucky are in no humor to have their Courts practically abolished by military upstarts who seize the slightest excuse to substitute their arbitrary authority for the safer and well settled forms of civil law.

TENNESSEE.

—At Hartsville, Sumner county, on Wednesday last, a difficulty occurred between Capt. R. A. Bennett and a man named John Rankin, which grew out of a law suit in which the former was counsel. Capt. Bennett received several severe if not fatal stabs, and Rankin was immediately placed under arrest.

—A negro orator from Ohio has been selected for the 4th of July jubilation at Nashville.

—The grand concert of the maestro Leo Wheney, in Nashville, was to take place Monday evening.

—The wheat crop of Coffee county is said to be not quite full but of an excellent quality.

—The trial of Col. Henry M. Ashby, charged with treason against the State of Tennessee, terminated Wednesday in his acquittal by a jury of Knox county.

—The Banner of Saturday says: Col. Prosser, who returned from Knoxville yesterday, states that Gov. Brownlow refuses to take any action with regard to the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad for the present, and declares his intention not to issue the bonds now in dispute until the injunction has been disposed of in the Federal Court. The chance of the road resuming operation at an early day is, therefore, slim indeed.

—The Brownsville Bee of the 19th says of the crops: Wheat harvesting is still going on in Haywood and adjoining counties. Some fields are very fine, but others quite indifferent. Where the land was covered with grass and stubble, the stand was least injured by the winter's cold, and the crop is heaviest. On the whole, the yield will probably be above an average one, and the grain superior. Corn looks green and flourishing, but is small. Rain would help it. Cotton is doing finely—said to be the finest prospect we have had for six years.

—The Murfeesboro Monitor of the 20th says: Since the adjournment of the State Convention, we have taken care to observe the tone and tendency of the Democratic press of Tennessee. One paper hoists the name of Andrew Johnson. Nearly all of the others have declared for Pendleton. There is no mistaking the popular current that has set in in Pendleton's favor. It daily grows stronger.

—The crops in Rutherford county are doing well. The Monitor says: We have had some timely showers during the week, which causes crops to present a more promising appearance. The wheat crop which is being harvested promises an abundant yield.

—Parrish, of the Bolivar Bulletin, complains of the hot weather, but says it is nothing to be compared to what we have in Memphis. Yesterday we had to take to woolen clothes against the unseasonable cold. See what a day may bring forth!

—The Bolivar Bulletin of Saturday says: "Just now the farmers are needing rain; the ground is exceedingly dry and dusty. However, crops are looking remarkably well," and "Most of the large wheat crop raised in this county has been harvested, clear of rust and blight. Good bye, Northern cribs!"

—The Bolivar Bulletin thus indulges in the "Horrible:" We are partially advised of a terrible murder which occurred about twenty miles northeast of this place a few days ago. A negro, whose name we have forgotten, called at a widow' woman's house and demanded some meat; the lady told the scoundrel that she had none to spare, whereupon he struck her a terrible blow, which almost instantly produced death. In our next we will endeavor to give particulars. The murderer made his escape.

—The Paris Intelligencer of the 20th says: A tremendous wind, accompanied by hail and rain, passed over our town yesterday, doing considerable damage to the trees on and near the public square. We are not informed as to the effects on the crops and fences of the surrounding country, but those in its path must have suffered to some extent. Its path, however, did not appear to be a broad one.

—The Paris Intelligencer says: During the last and present weeks farmers in the adjacent country have been busied in reaping their wheat. The harvest does not promise to be an abundant one, owing to the severe freezes last winter, except in a few instances in which the seed were put in with great care, or the lands sown were high and dry. The complaint is unanimous that the crop will be short, in many cases by a half, and in others by not so much. The opinion is pretty general, however, that the crop will be sufficiently large to bread the county, and there are those who think that the quantity raised will exceed that amount.

—A revival is going on at the Baptist Church at Huntsville, Ala. More than twenty persons had made professions of religion up to the 14th, and the meetings were still kept up.

—The Montgomery Advertiser of a late date says: "Rain is much needed at this time. One or two more good seasons of rain, the farmers say, will make the biggest corn crop ever known in Alabama. The corn and cotton crops are generally clean of grass." Well, there has been considerable rain somewhere, and we hope Alabama may have received a full share.

—The first new wheat was sold at Atlanta on the 19th, at $2 per bushel.

DR. JAMES,

FORMERLY OF JAMES' LOCK HOSPITAL, Custom House street, New Orleans, (established 1850), for the last seven years located in Chicago, and celebrated throughout the country in the successful treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES, can be confidentially consulted at his office as above, 91 and 93 Randolph street, corner of Dearborn street, or by letter Postoffice Drawer 5863.

Dr. JAMES treats CHRONIC MERCURIAL SYPHILITIC, BLOOD and SKIN DISEASES, and all DISORDERS of a CONTAGIOUS VENEREAL CHARACTER—which he cures without the use of mercury, iodide potassii, arsenic or any poison, but with his NEUTRALIZER, a positive cure for all humors and blood poisons.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS, such as SEMINAL WEAKNESS, NOCTURNAL and DIURNAL EMISSIONS, brought on by abuse of the organs, early indiscretions, excesses, or entailed hereditarily, causing loss of memory, confusion, depression, dimness of vision and oftentimes insanity, with a deplorable train or other symptoms, treated and radically cured by an infallible method, saving time and blood poisons. All diseases peculiar to the sexual organs, of a private character, radically and permanently cured.

Old diseases of the most horrible class, where the blood has become poisoned, producing blotches on the face, small watery blisters, pains in the head and bones, ulcerated throat and nose, sores on the limbs and body, scrofula, together with an endless number of sufferings—effectually and permanently cured.

DR. JAMES is recommended by the press of the country, by professors of medical colleges, and by the medical profession generally. Those afflicted should apply to him, and be cured at once.

THE MONITOR, by Dr. James, a treatise upon diseases peculiar to the sexual organs of either sex, causes effects and their remedies, compiled from an experience of twenty years' practice in the exclusive treatment of these diseases, sent to any address, securely wrapped. Price one dollar. Pamphlet on SPERMATORRHŒA, or one on SYPHILIS, sent in sealed envelope upon receipt of postage—two red stamps. Address Dr. JAMES, Postoffice drawer 5863, Chicago, Illinois. ap17 tf

MONTVALE SPRINGS---1868

THIS FAVORITE SUMMER RESORT, situated in Blount county, East Tennessee, will be opened for the reception of visitors on the 1st of June.

The marked beneficial results attending the use of these waters, in functional derangements of the Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and Skin, and the cure of Chronic Diseases, attest their Medicinal Properties.

All the accessories for enjoyment and recreation at the best watering places will be found here.

The facilities for reaching Montvale this season will be increased by the extension of the Knoxville and Charleston Railroad, now in rapid course of construction, and regular trains are expected to be running, by the time of opening, to Maryville, whence passengers are conveyed in coaches to the Springs, nine miles distant.

Board reduced, per day, to $2; per week, $12; per month, $40. Address for pamphlets containing analysis and description of waters, etc., ma8 1m JOS. L. KING, Knoxville, Tenn.

Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs
Greenbrier County, West Virginia.

THE undersigned, lessees of this old and well-known WATERING PLACE, announce that (encouraged by the liberal patronage received last season) they have largely added to their accommodations in comfort and appearance, and are prepared to entertain FIFTEEN HUNDRED GUESTS.

The Bathing accommodations are in fine order. Hot and warm sulphur baths, so eminently efficacious in many cases, are at the command of visitors at all hours.

In addition to other amusements, they have provided a new and elegant BOWLING ALLEY and BILLIARD ROOM, conveniently located. Prof. Rosenberger's celebrated FULL BRASS BAND has been engaged for the season. A GOOD LIVERY STABLE will be kept on the premises.

The completion of the Virginia Central Railroad to Covington leaves only twenty miles of staging, through a beautiful mountain country, over a well graded turnpike.

TERMS—Three dollars per day, and eighty dollars per month. Children under ten years of age and colored servants, half price. White servants according to accommodations.

TH

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ALBERT PIKE & CO.

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

For President of the United States,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

Subject only to the decision of the National Democratic Conservative Convention.]

PLATFORM OF THE TENNESSEE DEMOCRACY.

1st. The Conservative men of Tennessee, putting aside all questions decided by the war, accept the title of 'Democrats,' and formally unite themselves with the Democratic party as it now exists.

2d. The question of the right of a State to secede from the Union has been decided by arms, and that decision should be accepted as final and conclusive.

3d. Nevertheless, while the Constitution makes the Federal Government supreme, it is so only with well defined limitations and restrictions, leaving the States large rights and powers over their domestic concerns, and making them coequal in respect of such rights; and these rights have not been impared by the result of the war, or the powers of the General Government aggrandized by it, to the endangerment of public liberty.

4th. The extinguishment of African Slavery is recognized as a fact, ratified by a binding Constitutional Amendment.

5th. The investiture of negroes with the right of suffrage, by the Congress of the United States, and the disfranchisement of white men, by the same authority, is a gross usurpation of power, and a policy unjust, unwise and oppressive, and tending to excite a war of races: the white men of America are entitled to superiority and supremacy in the administration of the Federal and State governments; and any measure intended to deprive them of it, or to divide or impair it, greatly endangers the perpetuity of free republican institutions.

6th. The faith of the nation is pledged to the payment of the national debt, according to the terms of the laws under which the bonds were issued, and not otherwise. The time of payment of the bonds ought not to be extended; the principal of the five-twenty bonds ought to be paid in currency, and the money granted to the National banks to be withdrawn.

7th. The Government bonds should be taxed in the hands of the bondholders, equally with other property.

8th. The doctrines and practices of the Radical party, which endeavors, by encroaching upon the powers of the Executive and Judicial branches of the Government, to absorb in the Legislative Department all powers, tend to the destruction of the Republican system of Government and the civil liberties of the people.

9th. Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever State or persuasion, religious or political; peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none; the support of the State Governments in all their rights, as the most competent administration of our domestic concerns and the surest outwark against anti-Republican tendencies; the preservation of the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of peace at home and safely abroad; a jealous care of the rights of election by the people and the supremacy of the civil over the military authority.

10th. Andrew Johnson the first choice of the Democracy of Tennessee; but their Delegates left free to unite in selecting another as the candidate for the Presidency.

EUREKA, MISS., Jun 20, 1868.

Hon. Albert Pike:

Dear Sir: Myself and several other young men wish to go to some country where we can be free from negro and Yankee rule, or rather misrule, but we are at a loss to know where to go, unless we leave the United States, and we have but little means to go upon, as we were Confederate soldiers, and all we had was swallowed up in the war. We are now poor, and wish to emigrate to some country where the energy and industry of the country is not crushed out by oppression and taxation. We have been thinking of going to Oregon or California, but we are at a loss to know which would be the best to go to. We know but little of either State, and as we are sons of Old Line Whigs, and knowing you to be one of that noble old party, we respectfully ask your advice as to what you think best to do. Our occupation is that of farmers. Please give us your advice, either through your excellent paper or by letter.

We are, respectfully, yours,

R. T. CLANTON, and others.

P. S.—Were you other than an Old Line Whig we would not trespass upon your valuable time, but our fathers are dead, we must go to some of their old friends for advice, and as secession and Radical rule have both misled us, we can trust none but those who have proved themselves true and worthy of being trusted.

Nothing so deepens and intensifies the profound sadness and sorrow for the condition of our distressed Southland, which all who love it must feel, as such letters as this which we here publish. Self-exile is as melancholy an act as the suicide that ends a long struggle with despair.

It is true, that

"All our States lie fainting, dying,
"Each to each with sobs replying;"

and that there seems nothing to hope for or to live for; since no one of us can see any mode of escape from the manifold ills that an accursed legislation has rained upon us; no prospect of relief for us, until after our ruin shall have become complete. Disfranchised and impoverished, the bayonet threatening interference at the least struggle for what once were rights that now are nothing; our controversies with those who rob and maltreat us, to be decided by venal Judges and juries of negroes; adventurers elevated to power by negro votes, ruling us, legislating for us, closing against us the avenues of employment, and hoarding or squandering as the case may be, the revenues they wring with a merciless greed from a ruined country and beggared people, it is little wonder that we despair.

Would it be strange if love of country should not endure, when that country is a corpse on which hyenas and obscene reptiles feed and fatten; when men are strangers in the land of their birth, aliens under their own skies, branded as the lepers were of old, and the goitered cretins of the Alps more recently, as outcasts to be avoided, because they dared once to "rebel" against the insolence of a vulgar villainy that menaced the annihilation of all their rights in the Union, and spat upon the Constitution as the rabble spat upon Christ? What is there to love, but the land itself, in whose bosom our dead children sleep, happily unconscious of the sorrows of their parents, in whose bosom we ourselves almost long to rest, and be relieved of the many calamities of this world? What else to love, where the sobs of anguish are punishable as evidences of disaffection; and where it may be truly said,

"There lives not one of us,
"But lives in peril of the midnight shot;"

and that

"Lists of proscription have been handed round,
"In which our general properties are made
"Our murderer's hire!"

Yes, there is something else to love. There is the PEOPLE to love, the white men of the South, who were true to the South, and who, with all their faults, and so much needing the discipline of adversity, have warm and generous hearts, manly and noble impulses, the heroism both of effort and endurance, devotedness to their country, and love of truth and honor. There are THE WOMEN of the South to love, who never faltered in their devotion to the land they love so dearly, nor lost hope or courage, nor shrank from suffering or privation in the performance of the noblest duties; and who now glory in honoring the dead who fell for the cause for which their mothers, wives and sisters did so much.

And there are the luxury of hate and the hope of a just revenge hereafter; for we are not angels, but men. The people of the North could have won our esteem by a generous oblivion of the past, when our armies surrendered and our soldiers laid down their arms. We do esteem a vast number of the officers and soldiers who fought bravely against us for the Union, and when the war ended held out their hands to us to clasp ours in friendship. But we detest and hate those who legislate for our degradation and oppression, and all who sustain and encourage those who so legislate. Even the worm will turn when it is trodden on. We detest those who insist on trying our chosen Chief for treason, and who refuse pardons to our Generals, and confiscate our lands and disfranchise ourselves, and set negroes over us to rule us. It is with us as it was with the Gauls, when

"Lucius Murena came as Proconsul,
"And at his bees a nest of plunderers;
"Praetors and Prefects, Quaestors,—dregs of Rome,—
"Hungry as hounds, and merciless as wolves,
"To gorge upon us:—"

Let it when

"the whips
"Of tyranny are ringing on our backs;
"When we are taunted, beggared, buffeted,
"Trampled like dogs,"

when our land is the wanton prey of despicable adventurers who feed upon it like vultures on a carcass; when our States are the footstools of insolent military upstarts spewed out upon us from the sewers and kennels of the cities, and who, as officers of the Freedmen's Bureau are independent of the Generals in command who are gentlemen; when

"Our old hallowed laws,
"Are the jest of Roman Pretors,"

—is it now that we can dissemble and smile and fawn and crouch, and buy our safety and immunity with the pale dishonor that falsifies its convictions and admits that the cause our children died for was villainous and criminal? Shall we flee away from our land like outlaws, because calamities thicken around us, and the world pronounces an unjust verdict against us, and History teems with lies, and the reign of the Devil seems to have begun?

Who can blame the white man of the South, the Statesman who knows his own worth and with an honest pride remembers his past services to the county, if he says, in the words of Croly?—

"This I will avow, that I have scorned,
"And shall so scorn, to hide my sense of wrong—
"Not he who brands my forehead, breaks my sword,
"Or lays the bloody scourge upon my back,
"Can wrong me half so much as he who shuts
"The gates of heaven on me,—thrusting out
"The Roman from his birthright; and for what ?
"To fling my offices to every slave;—
"Vipers, that creep where man disdains to climb;
"And having wound their loathsome track to the top
"Of this huge mouldering monument of Rome,

Should we desert our Country in the day of her great distress, and so escape from the sad necessity of sharing her sorrows? Do we not owe a duty to those who, perhaps because they relied upon our counsels and trusted to our assurances of the certainty of success, have lost all, and cannot remove to another country, but must remain here where their fathers lived, and patiently endure the ills that fortune sends? Those who embark in a common cause should stand together until the end, and if there be penalty to pay, pay it alike.

We do not think that any Southern man ought now to abandon his country; and we know of no foreign country that one ought to prefer to his own, sad and calamitous as the condition of the Southland is. We know of none to which a Southern man ought to go; of none in which he would better his condition. On that subject it is not in our power to give advice.

TENNESSEE.

—New flour has been brought to Nashville—Col. Stratton's "Pride of the South."

—The Press and Times says: "The Jonesboro Union Flag proposes Hon. Thomas A. Hamilton, of Shelby, as the next Republican candidate for Governor." "Sugar" prefers floating into Congress on the tide of African sentiment.

—The Press and Times contained the following: "A dispatch from Washington says Gen. Grant and Ben Butler have buried the hatchet, and are now in friendly intercourse." And now may be said to go it "spoon fashion." Ben was likely though to bury something more valuable than "the hatchet."

—The Jonesboro Flag records the following serious accidents: "Mr. Samuel Vincent, living near Fall Branch, in this county, met with a serious accident on last Saturday. As he was entering the western part of town, his horse became frightened and unmanageable. Mr. Vincent was thrown upon a pile of rocks, while his horse was at full speed, and one of his thighs was horribly mangled. He is now lying at the house of Mr. Thompson, and, we are glad to learn, is rapidly recovering. We learn that a young lady by the name of Louisa Phillips, living at Walkertown, in Greene county, shot herself with a pistol she was handling carelessly. The ball entered the fleshy part of the left leg, following the bone, and glancing off from the ankle joint, entered her right foot. At last accounts, she was in a very critical condition, and her recovery unexpected by her medical attendants. This is another sad and painful consequence of the careless handling of firearms."

—A poor man named Goodrich, about fifty years old, with a wife and two children depending on him for support, met a terrible death on Friday last, at the saw mills of Messrs. Maury, Pinkerton & Sweeney, about eight miles from Nashville, on the Millsboro pike, where he was engaged as a laborer. While engaged in taking off a "slab" of timber from the carriage of the mill, which proved too heavy for him, he stepped back a short distance to get out of the way, but the timber drove him into the girting attached to the driving wheel, where he was caught, whirled between the band and girt and dashed upon the ground, actually stopping the machinery. The bands were cut, but this afforded no relief, as he remained immovable and insensible between the wheel and earth. He was finally extricated by the unscrewing of and prying off the wheel. It was found that he had seven ribs broken, his bladder burst, and his limbs head and body terribly mutilated.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The Sovereign Sanctuary of the E. M. R., of Memphis, being the Grand Body of the United States, of this Ancient Rite of Masonry, held its annual meeting in this city today—C. C. Burt, 96°, Grand Master presiding. George D. Noble, of Detroit, was elected Deputy Grand Master. The utmost harmony prevailed.

MAINE.

AUGUSTA, ME., June 23.—The Convention of Conservative Soldiers and Sailors to-day elected Gen. C. W. Roberts President. About two hundred and fifty delegates are present. Resolutions were adopted declaring that they would support the Conservative party.

At a meeting of the delegates of the Fifth Congressional District to day, P. J. Carlton and J. C. Talbott were elected to attend the National Democratic Convention. This is a triumph for the Pendleton wing.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, June 23.—About 100 arrests were made yesterday by the U. S. Marshal, of parties supposed to belong to a filibustering expedition to Mexico, in the interests of Santa Anna.

There is considerable activity among the United States officers on account of this and other similar expeditions.

It is said that a motly crowd of about fifty of those arrested were found in one gang.

Three of the newly elected Aldermen have failed to qualify, and Gen. Buchanan yesterday filled their places by appointments. Both Boards are now full, and meet to-night.

MISSISSIPPI.

JACKSON, June 23.—To-day at 12 m. Gen. Biddle, Commander of this post, demanded the surrender of the Governor's office. Gov. Humphreys refused to vacate it, and Gen. Biddle asked him if he would have to use force to get possession? Gov. Humphreys replied that he would. Biddle then brought in a squad of soldiers and took possession.

Gov. Humphreys has fitted up another room for an office and asserts that he is still Governor.

In the election for the ratification of the proposed Constitution, 39 precincts heard from give a Democratic majority of over 2000. The Radicals carried 10 of the 39.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The Committee on Ways and Means will amend the pending tax bill by requiring the whisky now in bond to pay an addition of ten cents to the general tax of fifty cents on the gallon, so as to make the amount equal to that paid by distillers, with their special license.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Edward C. Johnson, as Assistant Secretary of Legation at London, and a number of Second Lieutenants in the army; and were also engaged in considering the Indian treaty.

It is said that the nomination of S. S. Cox, as Minister to Austria, was rejected.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Mrs. Pollard publishes a card reiterating the charges against her husband of ill treatment, and renouncing all connection with him hereafter. She also states that the allowance which Pollard falsely says was provided for her has been stopped.

Dr. Raphael, the most eminent Hebrew divine in this country, died to-day of appoplexy.

The California delegates to the National Democratic Convention have arrived, and also a number of politicians from the Southern States.

At the soldiers' and sailors' meeting in Brooklyn last evening, Gen. Negley presiding, arrangements were made for a convention to select delegates to the Cooper Institute Convention on the 4th of July.

NEW YORK, June 23.—A Washington special says the Ways and Means Committee have agreed to prepare an amendment to the tax bill levying a special tax of 50 per barrel on whisky in bond.

The House Banking Committee favor the substitution of the proposition offered sometime since, by Harper, for the Senate bill, indorsing the national currency.

The Senate Finance Committee have decided to report the substitute proposed by the Secretary of the Treasury for the House bill, relative to the transportation of merchandise in bond from ports of entry on the sea board to the interior. The important features of the House bill are retained, but special guards are made against frauds.

Heavy frauds on the Government in the payment of the bounty to colored soldiers have been discovered, and it is said that a prominent head of a bureau in the Treasury Department is involved.

The House Foreign Committee will recommend the passage of a bill to establish emigration agencies in Europe.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—A large number of petitions were received asking that the soldiers of 1812 be included in the pension rolls, which were appropriately referred.

Sumner, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported, with amendments, bills for the protection of the rights of American citizens abroad. The amendments strike out that portion of the third section which provided for retaliating measures, in case of the illegal imprisonment of American citizens, and inserts a new provision, to make the section read:

And be it enacted, That whenever it shall be duly made known to the President that any citizen has been arrested and is detained by any foreign Government in contravention of the intent and purposes of this article, or if any citizen shall have been arrested and detained, whose release upon demand shall have been unreasonably delayed or refused, it shall be the duty of the President forthwith to report to Congress all the circumstances of such arrest or detention, and any proceedings for the release of the citizens so arrested, that Congress may take prompt action to secure to every citizen of the United States his just rights.

Edmunds called up the bill to amend the act to provide for the election of Senators of the United States, providing that in case of the death or refusal to serve, of a Senator elect, the Legislature should meet the second Tuesday thereafter and proceed to the election.

Some discussion followed, but no action.

Thayer sent to the Chair the credentials of Alex McDonald and Benjamin F. Rice, Senators elect from Arkansas, which were read, and Thayer moved that they be sworn in.

Davis said he held in his hands the credentials of two other gentlemen, which he asked to have read, (laughter) which was agreed to. The papers were then read, being the credentials of John P. Jones and Joseph H. Garland, as Senators elect from Arkansas, dated November 24, 1868.

Howard moved to lay them on the table, which was agreed to.

Davis moved that the documents of both parties be referred to the Judiciary Committee, with instructions to inquire which of them were constitutionally elected. After a long discussion the motion was rejected, and the Senators elect from Arkansas were sworn in at 2:15 p.m.

Conness withdrew his resolution, offered yesterday, to discharge the Committee on Foreign Affairs from the further consideration of the House bill for the protection of American citizens abroad, on the ground that the Committee had made a report.

The Legislative appropriation bill was again taken up.

The question was, on Sumner's motion to strike from the amendment of the Committee the clause repealing the act creating the office of Second Assistant Secretary of State, and Examiner of Claims in the State Department. Sumner made some additional remarks on the subject, and after debate, the amendment was adopted by 22 to 19.

The next amendment of the Committee was agreed to, increasing the force of clerks in class 3 of the Treasury Department from eleven to twelve. In class 2 from six to fourteen. In class 1 from six to fifteen, and increasing the amount of the appropriation accordingly.

The amendment adding six clerks of class 4 of the First Comptroller's Office was also adopted.

On the motion of Sumner the amendment appropriating $4500 for temporary clerks for the First Comptroller, was amended by increasing it to $6000.

Another amendment was adopted increasing the number of clerks for the Second Comptroller's Office as follows: From seven to twelve in class 4, from fourteen to twenty in class 3, from fifteen to twenty-eight in class 2, from six to twenty one in class 1, and adding twelve copyists.

Another amendment, by Sherman, adds three clerks for the Commissioner of Customs. The Committee added for the same, two to class 4, two to class 3 and two to class 2.

Further amendments of the Committee were adopted, striking out the provisions to continue in force so much of the act of March 4, 1864, as authorizes upwards of 200 clerks in the three classes in the office of the Second Auditor, until June 13, 1869, and no longer, adding for the Fifth Auditor nine clerks, or copyists, and two laborers, as a temporary force, and increasing the appropriation for detecting and bringing to punishment violators of the internal revenue laws, from $100,000 to $200,000, and increasing the number of clerks in the Land Office from twenty to forty.

At half past four two-thirds of the bill yet remaining for consideration, on the motion of Trumbull the Senate went into executive session, and soon adjourned.

HOUSE.

Paine asked, as a question of privilege, to offer a resolution that the oath of office be now administered to Logan H. Roots, James Hinds and Thomas Bates, members elect from the State of Arkansas.

Maynard suggested that it would be better to take the same course that had been taken in the case of the Tennessee delegation—refer their credentials formally to the Committee on Elections—and the resolution was so modified and agreed to.

Stevens, of Pennsylvania, offered a special resolution directing the Clerk to present to the Secretary of State the Arkansas bill, which was passed over the President's veto. Adopted.

Eggleston presented a telegram from the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce in favor of the appropriation for the improvement of navigation at the falls of the Ohio and the Mississippi rapids. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

The House then went into a Committee of the Whole on the Tax bill, with Blaine in the chair—the question being on Van Winkle's amendment to the first section, to reduce the tax on whisky from sixty to fifty cents, and after a lengthy discussion the amendment was agreed to by 87 to 37.

Allison offered an amendment requiring the tax on whisky used in the manufacture of vinegar to be paid, which was agreed to.

Amendments, other than verbal, were made to sections 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, which regulate the internal management of distilleries, the filing of bonds by distillers, the proprietorship of distilleries, and the furnishing of plans and descriptions of distilleries.

The 10th section was amended by providing that if two establishments belonging to different persons are within 600 feet of each other, neither should be licensed, and when they belong to the same person only one shall be licensed.

FOREIGN.

BELGRADE, June 23.—Milan IV., the new Prince of Servia, has arrived from Paris, accompanied by Councillor Ristich and his tutor. The Prince was received with the greatest enthusiasm by all classes. He was met at the gates by the principal officers of the Principality, and conducted to the Cathedral amid the acclamations of the multitude.

PARIS, June 23.—La Liberte publishes a report that Menotti Garibaldi is raising volunteers to make another attack on Rome.

At a public banquet in Civita Vecchia, Gen. Dumontel, commander of the French forces in the Pontifical States, in a speech declared that France, would never abandon the Holy Father.

ROME, June 23.—At a Consistory yesterday, at which many new Bishops were appointed, the Pope delivered two separate allocutions, one concerning the Papal bull calling a General Council of the Roman Catholic Church, and the other on the present state of religion in Austria.

LONDON, June 23.—George Francis Train was again arrested and brought before the Bankrupt Court to-day, and after a short examination was remanded to prison. Train protested, and said he would appeal to the United States army and navy for protection.

In the House of Lords to night the Scotch Reform Bill passed to its second reading.

—It is reported in New York that Mr. Samuel N. Pike will lay out a race track on the extensive piece of the "Jersey flats," which he purchased lately, and has been engaged in draining.

GENERAL ITEMS AND NEWS.

—It is reported that Lamartine is in a dying way, and that it is no longer affectation.

—Ripe watermelons have made their appearance at Macon, Ga., and we presume we shall have them here, ere this cold weather brings on frost.

—The Atlanta Intelligencer of the 19 h says: Joseph Oliver, (ex-reb.,) Company K., 7th Georgia regiment, is lying ill at the corner of Broad and Walton streets, from the effects of a wound received in the thigh at Jonesboro. He is in a destitute condition and a fit subject for charity. Oliver is originally from Texas, and entered the army from that State.

—Pius IX entered on his seventy-seventh year on the 25th of May. He is fond of mentioning that his father, Count Jerome, died at eighty-four; his mother, the Countess Catherine, at eighty-two; his paternal ancestor, Count Hercules, at ninety-six; his brother Gabriel at eighty-seven; his second brother at eighty-three.

—Mrs. Eunice Warner, formerly of Great Barrington, Mass., became a mother at thirteen years, a grandmother at twenty-seven, a great-grandmother at forty, a great-great-grandmother at fifty-six, a great-great-great-grandmother at seventy-four, after which she lived several years.

—Joseph S. Cain, Clerk of a Mobile market for ten years, was removed the other day by military authority, and his place filled with a man named Lucknow of unknown pedigree.

—The funeral of Dr. Lingen, at Mobile, who died on Sunday the 14th, was most numerously attended.

—A heavy blow was recently inflicted on the President, when the other evening, according to the Tribune the name of Andrew Johnson was stricken from the New York Union League.

—The new paper, an elegant and able sheet, issued at Atlanta, Ga., entitled The Constitution, by Carey W. Styles & Co., affords the following illustration of the barbarous: A portion of the Columbus prisoners are confined in cells 8x3½ feet at the military barracks. These cells are located on the sunny side of the barracks. If men are melting in the open air, God only knows how the poor fellows can withstand it.

—According to the latest special of the Louisville Journal, Grant and Butler dined together, and a compact has been formed between them with a foreign mission, or the collectorship of New York in the background.

—The special to the Louisville Journal of the 19th says: The Reconstruction Committee is not agreed on Bingham's bill shutting out 25 000 Virginians who have registered. It is thought, however, that the measure will be pushed through Congress in spite of decency, and the would-be-decent Republicans. The Radical Virginians say they are lost without it. The Senate had before it to-day a bill to give $2,000,000 to the branch of the Pacific Railroad from Atchison to Fort Riley. It is a huge swindle. Pomeroy is a director and stockholder, and Harlan, Pomeroy's henchman, is its advocate. The thing will hardly work. Even the most unbushing of the Radicals can hardly go such an open job.

—The Louisville Journal says: "We are authorized to say that Gen. Grant will make no harangues this summer. He will smoke his cigar, and Colfax can take the stump."

—The Louisville Journal, in his leading article on the 20th, says: "One man has been honest enough, and bold enough, and penetrating enough to pierce the labyrinth of Radical abominations, and hold up before the people a just and practicable method of ridding the country of it; and this he did in due time for their reflection and criticism, and, like pure gold, the more his plan is rubbed the brighter it shines. That man has a spotless record, public as well as private. He has been tried in many trusts and put to the highest tests, and was never found wanting in the sterling qualities of a statesman and a patriot. That man, in short, is Pendleton, of Ohio, and Kentucky wants him for a President."

MISSISSIPPI.

—A Sunday school has been organized under favorable auspices at the Baptist Church of Water Valley.

—The Water Valley Eagle of the 20th says: A number of the "Boys in Blue" arrived in our town one day last week, for the purpose of remaining until after the election—the authorities fearing, perhaps, some disturbance. We have, however, seen nor heard nothing that indicates trouble, and presume the election will, as it would have done without the precaution pass off quietly, there being no disturbance; our people both white and black being almost a unit for the Democratic ticket, and against the Constitution.

—A grand Masonic Ball and Supper was to have been given at Water Valley last evening, June 23d.

—The registration in Yallobusha county closed on the 12th—registered 328 white and 228 blacks. Colored clubs for Democracy are being formed all over the county. The election takes place all this week.

TWENTY-THIRD DAY—Tuesday.—Sun rises 5:01; sets 7:53.

Saints.—Nativity of St. John the Baptist,* martyrs of Rome under Nero, 1st century. St. Bartholomew of Duneim.

Born.—John Churchil, duke of Marlborough, 1860, Devonshire; Josephine, Empress of the French, 1763, Martinique; Gen. Hoche, 1768, Montreuil; Rear Admiral Sir John Ross, Arctic navigator, 1777.

Died.—John Hampden, patriot, 1643, Thame; Nicholls Harrison, historian, 1720.

*The festivals of the Saints are generally celebrated on the anniversary of their death, but an exception to this rule holds in the case of John the Baptist.

PERSONAL.—The Hon. J. W. Leftwich, Mayor of the city, left yesterday afternoon for Washington, whither he goes as a member of the National Democratic Committee.

LINDEN STREET SCHOOL.—This school, under the direction of M. and B. Shattuck, will have its exhibition and examination on Thursday evening at the Memphis Club Hall. The exercises will consist of speeches, music, dialogues, etc. Tickets are for sale at the door.

OIL PAINTINGS, ENGRAVINGS, ETC. This day at 10 a.m., W. H. Passmore & Co. commence the sale of oil paintings, plain and colored lithographs, mirrors and silver-plated frame show cases. The entire collection will be open for inspection early this morning, and will prove worthy the attention of parties desirous of purchasing such lines of goods.

IUKA SPRINGS.—To-morrow (Thursday) evening, the grand opening soiree dansante of the Iuka Springs Hotel will take place. Every arrangement for the pleasure and comfort of the invited guests has been made, and all who are so fortunate as to receive a card of invitation will have a "high old time." In another place will be seen Col. Ross' card in relation to trains thither and return.

THE TOURNAMENT.—General E. W. Rucker having signified his inability to act as President of the tournament which is to come off at Linde's Park on Friday, 26th inst., Gov. Isham G. Harris has been nominated to and has signified his acceptance of the position. Meanwhile every preparation is being made to make the affair one of the most brilliant that has ever come off in these regions.

EMMONS & SON, in addition to the daily papers from the principal cities, received yesterday the Old Guard for July, the Gartenlauber No 5, the Waverly, Wilkes, The Week, Record, Pictorial Nick Nax, Album, Sporting Times, American Agriculturist for July. Call at either store, No 10 Jefferson street, or 393 Main street.

RETURNED TO DUTY.—Mr. A. S. Longergan, who we noticed several days ago as having been slung-shotted and garroted, returned yesterday to duty. He is still suffering from the effects of the terrible punishment inflicted on him by the brigand who attacked him; but we hope a day or two more will bring that all right. When getting home so late again, we are quite sure that he will ever "think of his head, think of his head, think of his head in the morning," and steer clear of all marauding parties.

MASONIC COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE. We learn that the closing exercises of this excellent and flourishing school, will take place at Bartlett station on Friday evening the 26th inst. Prof. T. J. Norcum, the Superintendent and Principal, has been long and favorably known to our Memphis public, and his corps of teachers are all more or less names well known as able instructors of the young. The exercises will consist of speeches, orations, dialogues, etc., interspersed with music and singing. Trains will leave, on Memphis and Louisville Railroad, at 3½ o'clock p.m., and the exercises will commence at 8 p.m.

LEFT.—Yesterday morning a band of African musicians, with all their dire instruments of discord, ycleept a brass band, marched down to the Memphis and Charleston railroad to take passage out to some country frolic. The train not being quite ready to start, they deposited their instruments in the car and scattered themselves around at two or three of the low groceries which surround that neighborhood, to take a drink. While taking a horn, the engineer blew his whistle and the train left, carrying off their tooting horns—leaving the blowers hornless and the horns blowerless. Some scalawag frolic was without a band of music yesterday.

POLICE ITEMS.

—We have gotten tired of complaining, telling about and speculating of the dullness of times in police circles. Every day gets worse. There was but one State case tried in the J. P. courts yesterday, and that was another battle of the Amazons.

—Mrs. Dugan and Isabella Christy occupy rooms in the same building, and have a well in common. Like Adelgunde and Kunigunde, they "quarreled at the spring," and had a rough and tumble on Monday, and the fair Isabella got most awfully licked. She laid complaint against Mrs. Dugan and had her brought before 'Squire Griffith, who imposed a fine of five dollars and costs upon her.

—The case of J. Ozanne, which was noticed in our Monday's paper, was yesterday dismissed, there being no proof whatever to justify the police in arresting Mr. Ozanne on any charge.

—There were ten arrests up to eight o'clock in the Second District—three whites and five negroes—all for minor offenses.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Called Session.

Present—Acting Mayor Ruffin, President Swayne, Aldermen Powers, Mageveny, Brown, Cartwright, Holst, O'Donnell, Cicalla, Renner, Lemon, Passmore and Ellis.

A message was received from the Acting Mayor relative to widening the sidewalks on DeSoto street, the present meeting being called to correct an informality. Also recommending the re-establishment of the Board of Health.

After some conversation Alderman Holst moved to lay on the table the proposition of Alderman Renner to put the ordinance upon its second reading, and called the yeas and nays:

Ayes—Powers, Mageveny, Holst, O'Donnell, Cicalla, Moffat, Ellis—7.

Nays—Brown, Renner, Passmore—3.

Alderman Holst offered a resolution as to the erection of lamp posts on DeSoto and Beal, and DeSoto and Gayoso streets, which was agreed to—the same to be erected before the said streets are paved.

Also, that the City Engineer offer proposals for ten days, for twenty gas posts for the use of the city, and report the same at next meeting.

Also, that the Street Commissioner be instructed to fill the gully on the north of Beal, on DeSoto, without delay.

Alderman Passmore presented the petition of certain tax-payers, to open and extend Gayoso and Wellington streets.

Alderman Moffatt was willing, provided it was as the gentlemen represented, the right of way was granted and the opening could be made without expense to the city. It was so understood and agreed to.

Alderman Passmore presented a communication from Mr. D. W. Currin, relative to taxes, which was referred to the Committee on Claims.

Alderman Passmore presented a communication from Dr. Early, in relation to the attendance on and ministration to the poor and needy, referring to an offer that had been made, in which he proposed to relieve the city from the expense of office rent, servants' hire, furniture, fuel, and other items, while he would hold himself in waiting to attend the indigent sick, at home, on Sundays, and at all times, only asking the use of a portion of the furniture from the old dispensary, and thirty-five cents for each prescription. Referred to Hospital Committee.

Alderman Mageveny offered an ordinance to amend the third section of the ordinance passed May 3d, relative to improvements, which had its first reading.

A resolution by Alderman Cicalla, that property holders yield two and a half feet on DeSoto and Union, in conformity with their wish to widen the street, was withdrawn, on Alderman Passmore's motion to lay on the table for further information.

Adjourned.

Judge Phelan will make the closing argument for the defendants to-day. The case of Simpson, Saunders & Co. vs. Steamer Natoma, for loss of cotton, was commenced and concluded last evening. A verdict will be rendered to-day. The calendar of cases set for trial to day are from case No. 200 to No. 240, inclusive.

[COMMUNICATED.]

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF WEST TENNESSEE COLLEGE.—These exercises closed on last Wednesday. The occasion was a feast of soul to the people of Jackson, and to the many visitors in attendance. In their examinations the students acquitted themselves with great honor. On Monday night the boy of the grammar-school interested the audience greatly by their proficiency in declamation. The little orators won for themselves golden opinions among the hearers.

On Tuesday night were original speeches by members of the Sophomore class. Right well did the young gentlemen acquit themselves. On the same evening the address to the Hesperian Society was delivered by Rev. J. T. Pickett, of Columbus, Miss. It was an able production, and won the approval of all who heard it.

Wednesday was Commencement day. The exercises commenced with speeches by the members of the Junior class. These speeches were regarded, by the large audience who heard them, as of very superior order. As literary productions, they were well composed, and evinced much thought, and they were spoken with great ability. The exercises closed with an able address by Bishop Quintard.

On the whole, the influence was favorable to the advancement of sound learning, and greatly tended to give a just appreciation of the benefits of a high order of intellectual training. * * *

THE allotted time of Dr. James' stay in Memphis having expired, he will in future be addressed at his home office, 91 and 93 Randolph street, Chicago, and postoffice address, box 5863 Chicago, Ill. See advertisement in another column, for particulars.

Annual Exercises of St. Agnes Academy.

The usual interesting ceremonies of the St. Agnes Academy commenced yesterday evening, and profiting by our experience at the preceding concerts of this favorite institution, we started early, and were fortunate enough to share a window-sill with some speculative individual, who offered his seat to the highest bidder, and refused a bid of fifty cents. Upon arriving at the institution we were, through the courtesy of a Sister whose saintly visage reminds one of the beautiful ideals of Raphael's Madonnas—shown into one of the parlors, in which a large and perplexing variety of worsted, hair and needle work and painting was on exhibition. Where there was such a large assortment, displaying so much taste and skill, it was impossible, without the assistance of an adept, to form any opinion on the comparative merits of the articles on exhibition. A very pretty design of worsted work, by Miss Leonora Busby, first attracted our attention, and a beautiful matt, by Miss Arah Botts. The most elaborate piece of worsted work in the room was a piano cover. The design was a large peacock in the center, the corners and edges ornamented by wreaths and groups of flowers. The coloring and drawing reflect much credit on the young lady, a graduate of last year, Miss Fenwick, whose soul within the last year has fled to a brighter and happier sphere. An elaborate ottoman and chair cover, by Miss Marie Gibbons, and a very prettily worked pair of slippers, by Miss Katie League, deserve especial notice amongst the many beautiful specimens of raised worsted work. Miss Mollie Brooks had on exhibition several specimens. We were also attracted by a very pretty piece of work, a hearth-rug, by Miss Jennie Dickerson. Passing from the worsted work our attention was arrested by a fine piece of needle and bead work, which much to our surprise we were informed was the work of Miss Mollie McNamara, a child of only about eight years of age. Amongst the most exquisite specimens of skill the hair jewelry deserves special notice—a hair set by Miss Marie Gibbons, a necklace and bracelet by Miss Fannie Jones, a very elaborate design of flowers by Miss Annie Kelly, and a very pretty and tastily designed watchguard, by Miss Mary Boro. The exhibition of painting does not compare with last year, still, a "rose bud" and "landscape" by Miss Alice Morris, and a "landscape" by Miss Mary Boro, show that the fine arts are not neglected in this admirable institution. Owing to the dense crowd which finally encroached upon our corner of the window sill, we were compelled, reluctantly, to give way, and heard very little of the exercises of the evening. The harp solo by Miss Mary Boro was well played, and judging from the silence it produced, was appreciated by the audience. It is certainly much to be regretted that the rooms in which the exercises were held are so small, as perhaps only half of the visitors were able to get into the densely packed rooms. The best of order, however, prevailed, and those who were so fortunate as to get within sight or hearing, were highly entertained with the exercises of the evening, which reflect equal credit on the young ladies, as well as on the character of this popular and most excellent Academy.

CHEAP PRINTING.

The APPEAL Job Office is daily turning out all kinds of Mercantile Printing at LOWER PRICES than it can be executed elsewhere in Memphis. All we ask is an examination of prices and styles to test the truth of the above statement.

ATTENTION, SIR KNIGHTS.—The officers and members of Cyrene Commandery No. 4, of Knights Templar, will meet at their Asylum Wednesday morning, June 24th, to act as an escort to the Masonic celebration on that day. Every Sir Knight will appear in full regalia dress, and mounted on black horses. Sir Knights can procure horses by calling on R. Van Brocklin, Madison street, between Main and Second, after 12 m. to-day. Any Sir Knight not having the required regalia can procure it by calling on the Sentinel at the Asylum. Visiting Sir Knights are fraternally invited to meet and participate with us.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Marble City, Capt. Conway, leaves on Thursday for Cairo and St. Louis.

The U. S. mail packet W. A. Caldwell, Capt. Haynes, leaves for the Arkansas on Thursday. Jack Chambers officiates at the desk in his usual off-hand and hospitable manner.

Capt. Frank Hicks, of the Magenta, is in the city. His boat is at the marine ways, in St. Louis, where she will be raised and otherwise altered and renewed preparatory to taking her place in the Memphis and New Orleans trade in September, in connection with the Mollie Able.

The master of the Able, Capt. Nat. Green, and his chief clerk, Mr. Cook Creighton, left for St. Louis last night to bring out the Mollie. She is loading for New Orleans, having crossed over to the St. Louis wharf yesterday.

The Eau Claire is picnicking at Paducah.

The Lotawanna, which passed up the other day, will enter the Memphis and Louisville trade.

Capts. Cartright and Dismukes have entirely recovered from the effects of the poison administered to them at Nashville.

The low pressure Richmond will pass up to-day at 9 a.m. for St. Louis. Capt. Neal is master and Woolfolk clerk. The Crescent says of her: The great Richmond had about 300 tons of freight, over 500 head of cattle, and her spacious cabin filled with passengers. Her trip is the largest, beyond a doubt, that left this city for Louisville, or any other port, since the termination of the "late unpleasantness."

Mr. John Sullivan, a well known river clerk, left last night for the Hot Springs, where he will fish for a month or two, and imbibe hot water until entirely cured of the rheumatism.

Several of our river men will be present at the Masonic picnic at James' Park to-day. The object for which it is gotten up never appeals in vain to those princely-hearted men who go down to the sea in steamboats.

We learn that Duff goes to the New York Convention, as a delegate from the mackerel wing of the party. He met with strong opposition from the colored members, but by liberal promises of tobacco and a fair division of such silver watches as might be gobbled on the trip, the dissenting element has appeased and the vote made unanimous.

We have omitted to mention that Capt. Bob Gibson, who has been absent in New Orleans for some days, has returned to the city.

The steamer Morning Star and the bark Cortland collided on Lake Erie on the night of the 21st. Both vessels sunk, and twenty lives were lost.

The towboat Simpson Horner passed up yesterday.

It is said that Capt. Garrett and the Times reporter who were drowned by the upsetting of the boat Little Western at Chicago, were both intoxicated.

The Antelope and Octavia passed St. Joseph on the 20th. The latter brought from Fort Stevenson to Fort Randall, Wm. Barry, the soldier who shot and killed Capt. Speer, of the English army, on that boat on her way to Benton last year. Barry is to be tried for murder at Yankton. She also brought down the parties who bought the wreck of the Amelia Poe, they having been driven off by the Indians and compelled to abandon their design.

Platte river is reported very high. Crops in Platte river valley are so promising that the wheat and corn crops will be three times as large as in any previous season.

Brook's Portable Revolving Screw Press

INVENTED by a Southern Soldier of Georgia, and patented in 1865, is now offered for sale by the undersigned, who have the sole right to sell in Shelby and Fayette counties. It combines simplicity, power and durability; is warranted to stand and work well. It can be worked with less power, saving time and wood material. It is made principally of iron, and will last much longer than the ordinary wood presses, and is practically the press for the times. PRICES MODERATE. These presses can be seen either at MORRIS, LEA & CO.'S, Memphis, Walker's Station or Macon, Fayette county, Tennessee.

THE BOARDMAN, GRAY & CO. PIANO-FORTES.

WHOLESALE AGENCY.

THE subscriber, late a member of this well known firm, has established a Wholesale Agency,

783 Broadway, New York City,

Opposite A. T. Stewart's Dry Goods Palace, corner Tenth street.

Where he will be pleased to receive the orders of his friends and public, and especially to hear from those who have so liberally bestowed their patronage on the firm heretofore. He will supply these superior Instruments to the trade, Wholesale and Retail, at the very Lowest Prices, made with the Insulated Iron Rim and Frame (cast in one solid piece). They excel all others in durability, superiority of tone, and elegance of external appearance.

All these Pianos have overstrung Scales, giving in connection with the patent iron rim and frame, Full, Round, Powerful and Sweet Mellow Tones. The Cases are elegant in appearance and easily and safely handled.

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpractised and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs, and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 d&wly

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

BROWNSVILLE, June 23, 1 p.m.—Today in the Supreme Court opinions were announced in the following causes: Morton vs. the State, and Anderson vs. the State—judgments arrested, and prisoners held to be further proceeded against by Circuit Court of Shelby. Wynne vs. the State, reversed and cause remanded. Myers vs. the State, reversed and indictment quashed.

GRENADA, June 23.—Every town on the Mississippi Central railroad, from Canton up, except Durant, give heavy majorities against the new Constitution. Democracy jubilant. SIGNAIGO.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 23.—About two weeks since two young men put into Newport, R. I., in a small boat called the Dove, from Newburyport for Baltimore. The craft was visited by several experienced boatmen, and the unanimous opinion was that the chances were against her reaching her port of destination. The boat has not been heard from since, and the supposition is that she went down in one of the heavy gales that set in soon after she departed.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Sarah Lawrence was mortally stabbed in a row last night at Weedsville, near Brooklyn. Two other women were arrested as her assailants. All are negroes.

A fire at 87 Fulton street last night, damaged the premises of Henry Jack, lithographer, and others, to the extent of five thousand dollars.

A meeting of negroes last night, was addressed by Susan B. Anthony, in favor of impartial suffrage.

The wife of E. A. Pollard, it is believed, made an unsuccessful attempt at poisoning herself Sunday night.

At Bellevue Hospital, yesterday afternoon, Coroner Keenan heard part of the testimony of the inquest on the bodies of the victims of the recent steam fire engine explosion in the Bowery. The examination will be continued to-morrow at the City Hospital, when the engineer of No. 9 will testify.

The seventeen-year locusts have within the past few days made their appearance on Long Island, the trees in the woods at Whitepost, about a mile west of Jamaica, being literally covered with them, and more are still coming out of the ground. Advices from the east end of the island state that there are millions of them in the vicinity of Manhasset and Farmingdale. They devour everything green that comes in their way, and great fear is entertained that the present crop will be destroyed by them.

TROY, N. Y., June 23.—Dr. Thomas C. Brinsward died suddenly last evening of disease of the heart, while presiding at a public meeting called for the purpose of aiding the Mechanics' Institute. He was Vice-President of the State American Society, and President of the State Medical Society in 1857. In 1867, he was one of the delegates to the Paris Scientific Congress. He was sixty-five years old.

BANGOR, June 23.—The Democratic District Convention for the Fourth Congressional District nominated G. W. Ladd, of this city, for Representative to Congress, and Hon. John B. Trafton for Presidential Elector.

LONDON, June 23.—In the House of Commons the Irish Political Reform bill was agreed to last night by the House in committee. The boundary bill was read for the third time.

AUGUSTA, June 23.—Alexander H. Stephens and Andrew J. Johnson are urged to be present at the meeting of the National Democratic Convention.

Crops in this section are suffering for rain, none of any consequence having fallen in six weeks.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, June 23, 1868.

Business to-day was rather better in the general markets, owing to the orders received by local packets.

Money is about the same, and Exchange continues to show signs of heaviness, though rates have not varied since our last, nor are they likely to for some time to come.

Owing to light offerings of stocks and bonds the transactions to-day were light. We continue previous quotations on all except M. & C. R. R. stock, for which 55c has been refused. Memphis and Little Rock 1st Mortgage, 40c; Navy bonds, 52c. Memphis and Ohio Railroad stock, 10c; 1st Mortgage bonds 10s, 30c; 2d Mortgage bonds 6s, 20c; Mississippi Central Railroad bonds, 1st Mortgage, 57 to 58c; 2d Mortgage, 40 to 41c; Mississippi and Tennessee 1st Mortgage, 50c; Mississippi and Tennessee 2d Mortgage, 33c.

Gold opened in New York at 140¼ and closed at 140¼c. The tendency here is upward, brokers advancing their buying rate from 139 in the morning to 139½ toward the close. Selling at 141c for small amounts. Coin interest to the amount of $30,000,000 on Governments matures on the 1st of July, a considerable portion of which will be exported, as our bonds, unfortunately, are held largely abroad.

City Scrip remains very quiet, with none worth mentioning upon the market, except that held by brokers, who will not sell at less than 80 to 82—indeed we doubt that any could be bought at the inside figure. The July interest will be promptly met in currency and City Bonds are in consequence stiffening up daily. Buyers can be found at 55c, with rather light offerings.

County Warrants are not as active as other promises to pay. There is very little, if any, speculative demand, and brokers who sell at 63 to 65c are slow to buy at 62c. Some will go no higher than 60c.

Police Scrip is steady at 80c buying. Selling at 85c.

In yesterday's commercial column of a cotemporary we find the following:

"A meeting of the merchants was held yesterday, at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, in relation to the improvement on navigation. Important points were discussed, and resolutions passed."

As the meeting did not come off, and was like nearly all of those called at our Chamber of Commerce—a fizzle—the "important points discussed" and the "resolutions passed" were purely imaginary. The importance of the subject, however, may have justified our cotemporary in supposing that even the Rip Van Winkles of Memphis might be brought together for a few moments to exchange views upon the matter. The result proves that it won't do to "prospect" our business men as can be sometimes done with a steamboat.

At a meeting recently held in Boston by an association called the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers and Planters, the President, A. A. Lawrence, of Boston, on taking the chair, said that the production of cotton cloth had increased 76 per cent. between 1850 and 1860, or equal to 4½ yards for each individual in the country in the latter year. He estimated the number of spindles running during the past winter at 6,400,000. The capital invested in cotton manufacture in the United States be puts at $260,000,000 in all. He concluded with:

Gentlemen, let us push forward this organization. To the manufacturers we can promise reliable information, which will enable them to extend their business with diminished risk. We can promise them protection against unjust claims for patent rights and protection against hasty and unjust legislation.

To the cotton growers we can promise an increased supply of capital, and of improved machines for cultivating and cleaning their crop. We will make it known there is in this country greater capability to produce good cotton than in any other country, and even greater than in all others. We will help them to regain the markets of Europe which they have lost, and we will make for them a larger market at home. We will show them that they can manufacture the heavy staple goods at the South and on the great thoroughfares of the West cheaper than we can at the North; and we will help them do that, and they must help us advance to new and finer fabrics.

Cotton in Liverpool at the opening to-day was dull. Uplands, 11⅛ to 11¼d; Orleans, 11⅛ to 11¾d. At noon it was declining and had gone down ⅛d. Uplands, 11⅛ to 11¼d; Orleans, 11¼ to 11⅜d, and closed easier and lower. Uplands, 11¼d; Orleans, 11½d. Sales 7000 bales.

In New York at the opening cotton was dull and holders anxious to realize. Low Middlings, nominally 28½c; Middlings, 30c; Orleans and Good Middlings, 30½c. At noon the market was dull and nominal. Uplands, 30c. At the close there was no change. Sales 500 bales.

Outside of an occasional scattering bale we have no sales to report. The only fine cottons on the market are held by speculators, who, in a majority of cases, bought at 30 to 33c and are not in any hurry to sell. A buyer or two, who held orders for Western spinners, would have taken a few bales early in the day on a basis of 29c for Middlings, but toward the close they were indifferent as the holder, and withdrew without purchasing. We quote the market quiet and prices entirely nominal.

POPULAR WORKS ON FREEMASONRY

PUBLISHED BY THE

MASONIC PUBLISHING

—AND—

MANUFACTURING COMPANY,

432 Broome Street, New York.

LITURGY OF THE ANCIENT AND ACcepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. By Albert Pike, 33d, sov. Grand Commander. Splendidly illustrated with Chromo-lithographic plates and numerous wood engravings, Part II, 4th to 14th degree, $5 00.

☞ It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Ill. Bro. Pike, by his learning and contributions has done much to elevate the standard of Masonic literature and extend a knowledge of its symbolism, ethics and history as any other living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be considered a master-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to men of science in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several of a similar character, yet to Bro Pike alone is due the honor of first exploring this branch of Masonic literature and of opening to the admiration of the Craft its vast storehouse of knowledge and beauty. This work contains the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Rite from the fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, is fully illustrated with fine chromo-lithograph engravings, showing all the proper costume, furniture, etc., belonging to each degree. No expense Thomas, Albin P. Bearing, Young L. G. Harris, Robert Thomas, Benjamin F. Hardeman Millege Murphy, William Cline, Charles G. Hillman, Andrew J. Cheney, John C.
